

FL - DKS Leader Q&A

Background & Rationale

1. What are the benefits of this transaction?

- This transaction marks the start of an exciting new chapter for Foot Locker and is a testament to the team's hard work and dedication.
- As you know, the retail industry is rapidly evolving and we are navigating an increasingly complex macro environment. By joining forces with DICK'S, we will be able to provide an even stronger global platform for our partners.
- This will better position us to serve our consumers' ever-evolving needs through iconic concepts, enhanced store designs and omnichannel experiences, as well as a product mix that that appeals to our different customer bases.
- DICK'S aims to invest in and grow Foot Locker's brand to position the combined company for long-term success and profitable growth.
- We are confident that together we will be able to continue expanding sneaker culture, elevating the omnichannel experience for our customers and brand partners, and enhancing our position in the industry.

2. Why DICK'S?

- DICK'S is a leading omnichannel retailer among athletes and outdoor enthusiasts. The business was founded in 1948 and today has more than 850 stores serving millions of customers across the U.S.
- Like Foot Locker, DICK'S has been successful in building a strong omnichannel athlete experience, differentiated product assortment and deep engagement with its customers.
- Importantly, DICK'S recognizes the power of Foot Locker's operations and the cultural significance and brand equity that we have built within the communities we serve.
- Our companies also share similar foundational values – integrity, excellence, innovation and teamwork – and DICK'S aims to invest in and grow our business to position the combined company for long-term success and profitable growth.
- Upon close, we expect DICK'S to operate Foot Locker as a standalone business unit within its portfolio and maintain our brands.
- We are confident that together with DICK'S, we will be even better positioned to expand sneaker culture, elevate the omnichannel experience for our customers and brand partners, and enhance our position in the industry.

3. Was the Board's decision unanimous?

- Yes.

Terms

4. What are the terms of the definitive agreement?

- Under the terms of the agreement, DICK'S will acquire Foot Locker for an enterprise value of approximately $2.5 billion. At close, shareholders will have the choice to receive $24.00 in cash, 0.1168 shares of DICK'S common stock for each share of Foot Locker common stock, or a combination of cash and stock.

- Based on the closing price of Foot Locker common stock on May 14, 2025, the $24.00 per-share consideration represents a premium of approximately 86.5% to Foot Locker's May 14, 2025 closing price and a premium of nearly 100% to Foot Locker's 30-day volume weighted average price.
- The cash and stock election structure allows our shareholders to elect their desired mix of receiving significant and immediate cash value at closing or the opportunity to benefit from the substantial potential upside of the combined company going forward.
- The transaction is expected to close in the second half of 2025, subject to customary closing conditions, including regulatory approvals and approval by Foot Locker's shareholders.

5. Why is there a stock component? Why this deal structure?

- We carefully considered and negotiated the structure of the transaction to maximize value for shareholders and we believe our agreement does that.
- The cash and stock election structure allows our shareholders to choose their desired mix of receiving significant and immediate cash value at closing or the opportunity to benefit from the substantial potential upside of the combined company going forward.

6. What happens if a third party emerges with a higher bid? What would you do if you receive another offer?

- We're not going to comment on hypothetical scenarios.
- Our Board knows its fiduciary duty and is well-advised.
- If pressed: If we receive an alternative proposal, our Board will evaluate it consistent and in accordance with the terms of the merger agreement.

7. Is there a breakup fee? Does it go both ways? How much?

- Under specified circumstances in accordance with the terms of the Merger Agreement, the Company may be required to pay a termination fee in cash to DICK'S equal to $59,500,000.
- Upon termination of the Merger Agreement under specified circumstances, DICK'S may be required to pay the Company a reverse termination fee in cash equal to $95,500,000.

Approvals & Timing

8. When is the transaction expected to close?

- We expect the transaction to close in the second half of 2025, subject to customary closing conditions, including regulatory approvals and approval by Foot Locker's shareholders.

9. What is the path to close? What approvals are required?

- We expect the transaction to close in the second half of 2025, subject to customary closing conditions, including regulatory approvals and approval by Foot Locker's shareholders.

10. When will the shareholder vote take place?

- We intend to hold a special meeting of shareholders as soon as feasible.
 - Details on the meeting will be available in our definitive proxy materials once they are filed.
